Mexican arrested in shooting of Paraguay striker

SECURITY agents have arrested a man linked to the January shooting of Salvador Cabanas (picture), at the time the captain of Paraguay's World Cup team and its star forward, Mexican officials said yesterday.

Cabanas, who was playing for the Mexican team Club America, was shot in the head after an argument at a Mexico City bar on Jan 25.

The Mexican Secretariat of Public Security (SSP) announced the arrest of Francisco Jose Barreto, also known as "The Accountant" and identified as one of the shooter's accomplices.

Barreto is "an alleged drug distributor" in the suburbs of Mexico City and "the only witness" to the shooting, SSP anti-drug commander Eduardo Pequeno said at a press conference.

The alleged shooter is Jose Jorge Balderas Garza, alias "The JJ," who according to Barreto is the man in charge of operations in the state of Mexico - where Mexico City is located - for the drug cartel headed by Edgar Valdez Villareal, Pequeno told reporters.

Valdez Villareal is a powerful and dangerous drug lord known as "La Barbie" who is currently involved in a bloody struggle for control of the Beltran Leyva drug cartel.

In the bar room argument Balderas allegedly chastised Cabanas, 29, for not scoring more goals, and the star player reacted

"aggressively," Pequeno said. "Cabanas headed to the bathroom. 'The JJ' followed the footballer along with 'The Accountant,'" Pequeno said. "Once inside the bathroom Barreto Garcia said he saw how 'The JJ' held Cabanas by the neck with one hand and with the other pressed his firearm against his forehead," Pequeno said. - AFP
