

KFC spends Merdeka and Malaysia Day with kids

> Fostering harmony and spreading love in the spirit of patriotism

THIS year's Merdeka Day and Malaysia Day were more meaningful for the less fortunate children of three charity homes - Rumah Anak Kesayanganku in Bandar Bukit Beruntung, Selangor; Pertubuhan Kebajikan Kanak-kanak Seremban in Taman Bidara, Negri Sembilan; and Rumah Sayangan in Taman Billion, Cheras, Selangor.

Not only were they feted to buckets of finger-lickin' fried chicken, tasty nuggets and delectable sides from KFC, they also had fun playing games and being entertained by "Awang the Clown". The cheerful and colourful event was spread over three days. It witnessed the children, their guardians and KFC employees having a ball of a time together. Besides music, fun and games, there were balloon sculpture sessions, a magic show, and lots of singing and dancing.

Marking the two significant days by celebrating with the children from these three homes was part of KFC Malaysia's corporate social responsibility effort in giving back to society. The party was also intended to foster harmony and spread love and the spirit of patriotism with these youngsters.

"We are deeply touched by KFC's effort to celebrate Merdeka and Malaysia Day with the children. When I told them that the KFC team was coming over to spend some time with them, they were thrilled!" said Nurul Baiti, guardian at the Rumah Anak Kesayanganku.

Saraswathy Howdiar, who is overseeing the Seremban home and Susan Looi of Rumah Sayangan, agreed that the children from both their homes were just as ecstatic. "KFC has shown the children the true meaning of Merdeka which is the spirit of sharing and togetherness," said Saraswathy. "The visit was indeed a memorable one where the children all had a blast!" added Looi. At the end of the party, goodie bags were given to each child, courtesy of KFC.

AmBank Group's east coast family day

AMBANK GROUP organised a family day gathering at the Primula Beach Hotel, Kuala Terengganu for its staff in the east coast recently. Joining the staff and their family members from the Pahang, Kelantan and Terengganu offices for the line-up of exciting and fun-filled events were AmBank Group chairman Tan Sri Azman Hashim and senior management from the group's head office in Kuala Lumpur.

The objective of the East Coast Region Family Day was to provide a platform for staff to mingle beyond the office environment, to foster better relationships among each other and get to know their families. The event was also aimed at giving recognition to staff, for their contribution and dedication in growing the company.

Azman said it also allows for colleagues, particularly from different departments, companies and regions, to bond. "This way, we will be able to learn more about the group as a whole, as well as inculcate the culture of connectivity and family spirit of AmBank Group in all of us."

The main activities at the event included four performances by AmBank Group staff, a special performance by The Singing Shop, a children's colouring contest, a wau demonstration, tele-matches and games, a fireworks display, as well as songs rendered by the chairman.
